

Memories with Someone Special

Think of a special memory you have with someone special in your life. It might be a holiday, an outing or a day you spent together or something they said to you.

Draw a picture of the special time

Write a short recount describing the special time you had together.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---