

Jenny Campbell

Who Ate the Bananas?

Author: Jillian Cutting

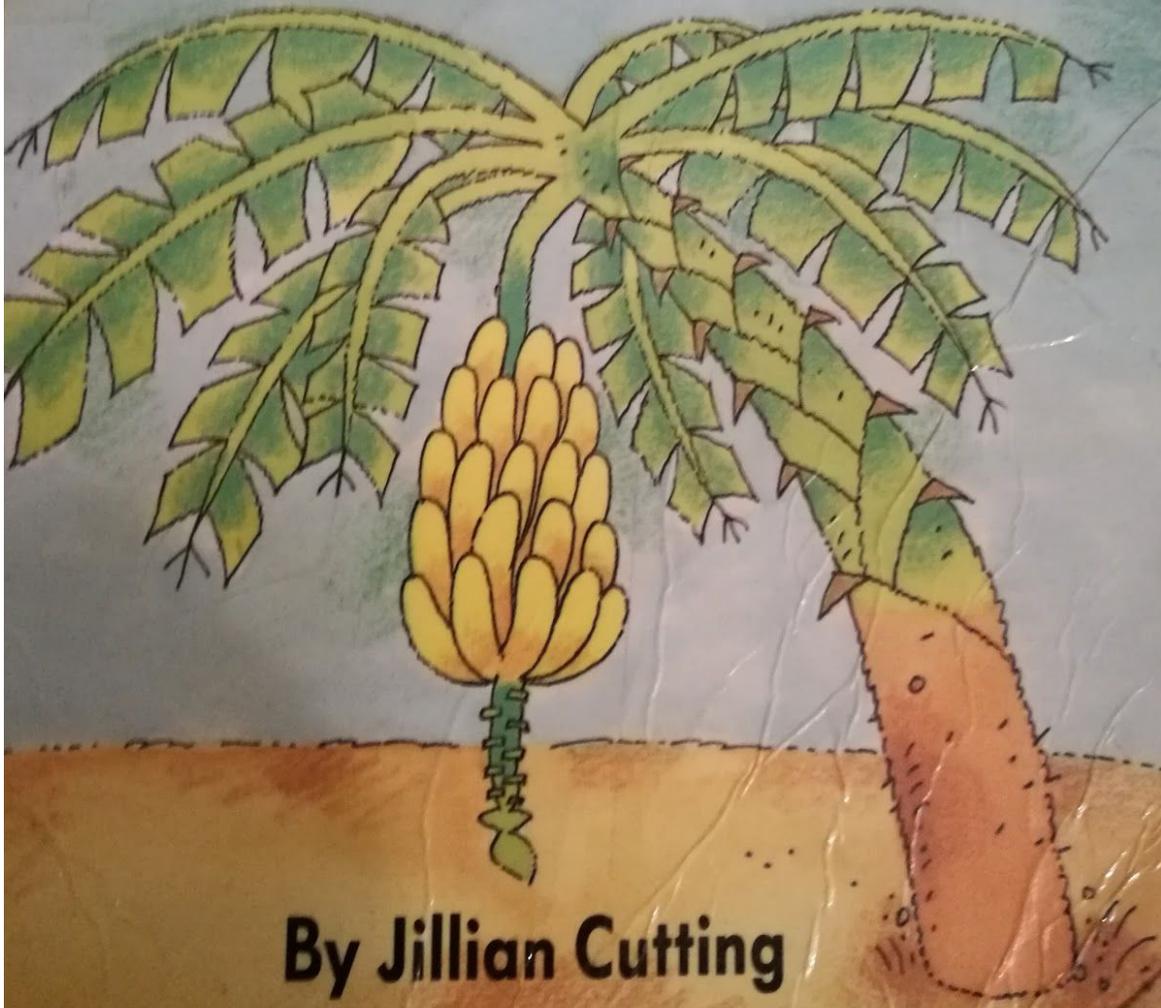

Illustrator: Jan van der Voo

Read the story with a family member for the first reading. Now read the story to another person (2nd. reading)

19

G3

Who Ate the Bananas?

By Jillian Cutting
Illustrations by Jan van der Voo

Who Ate the Bananas?

Jenny Campbell

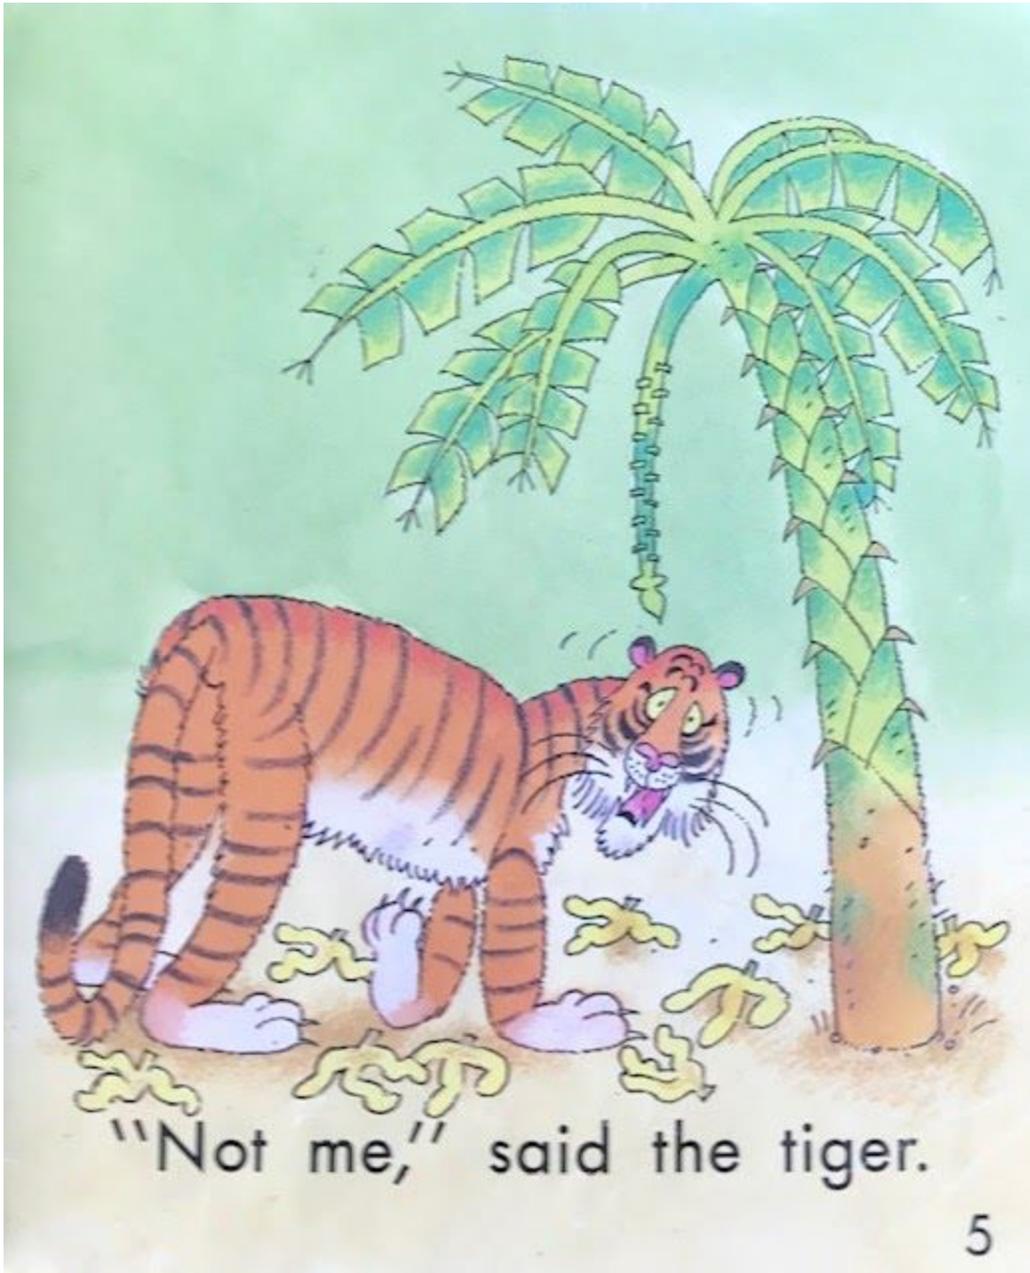

"Who ate the bananas?"

Jenny Campbell

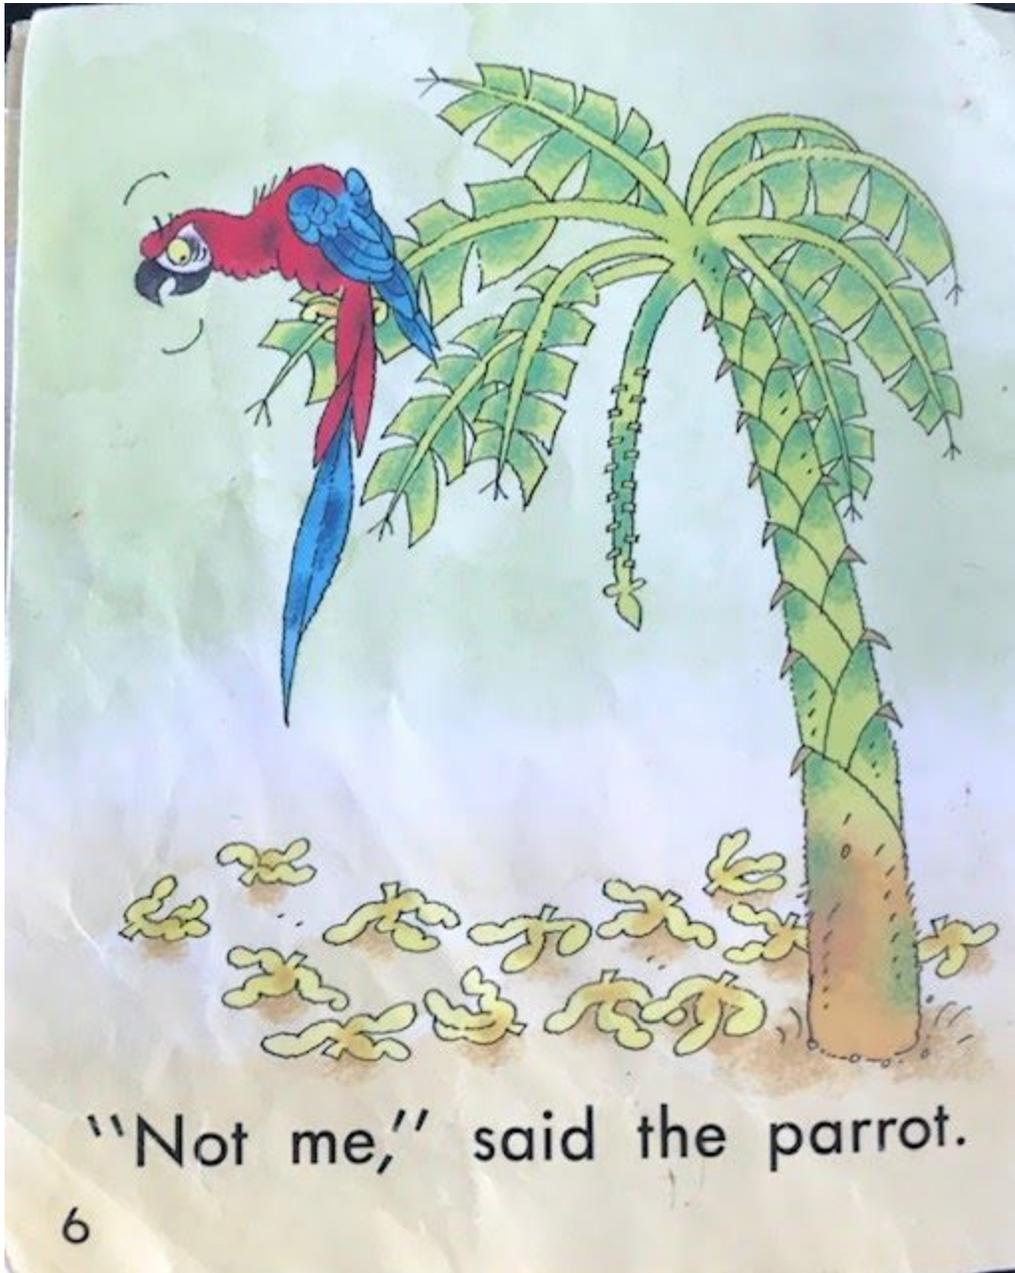

"Not me," said the snake.

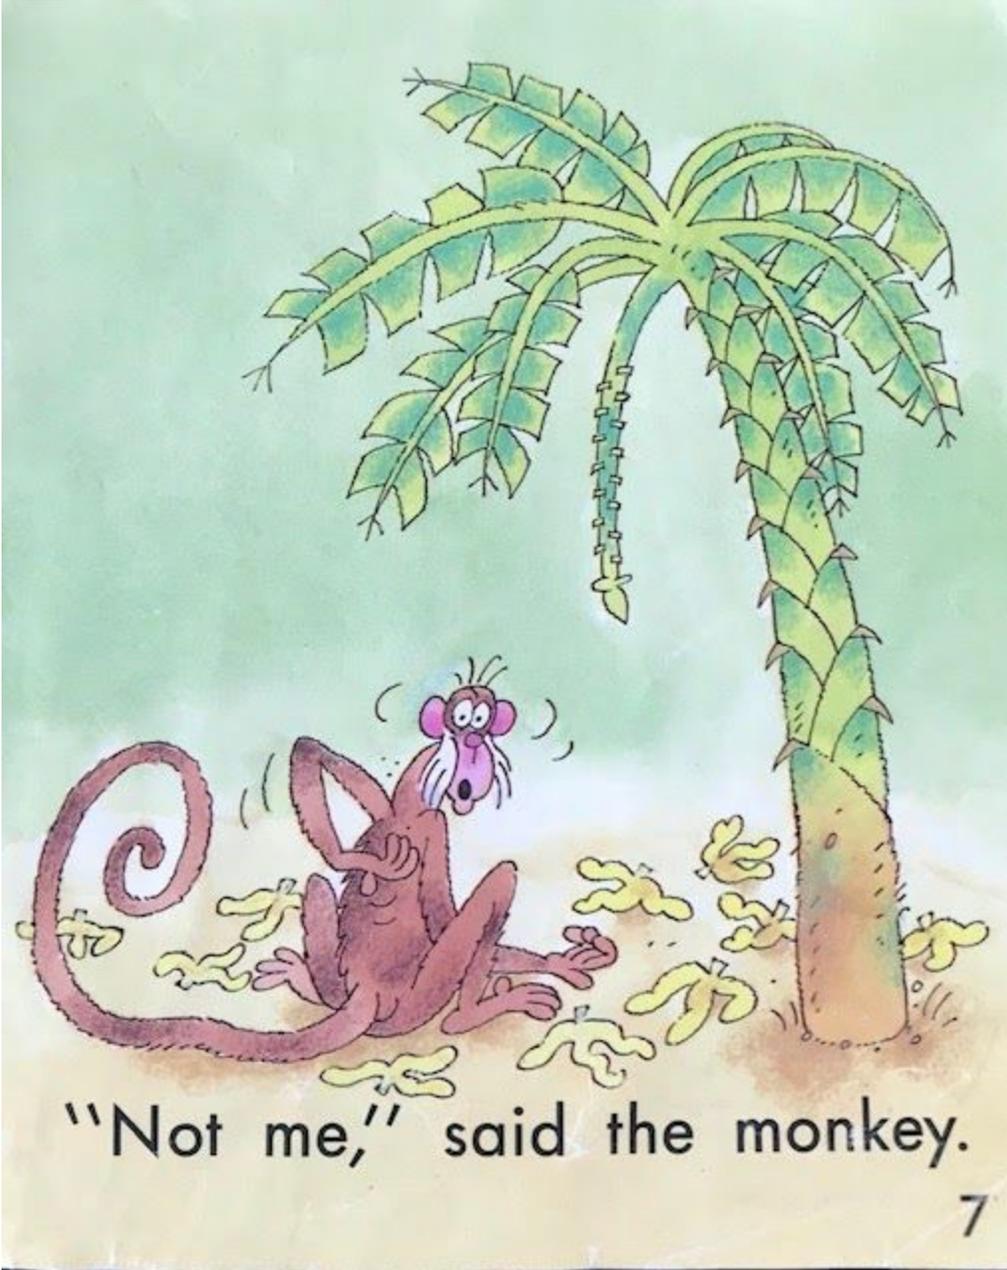

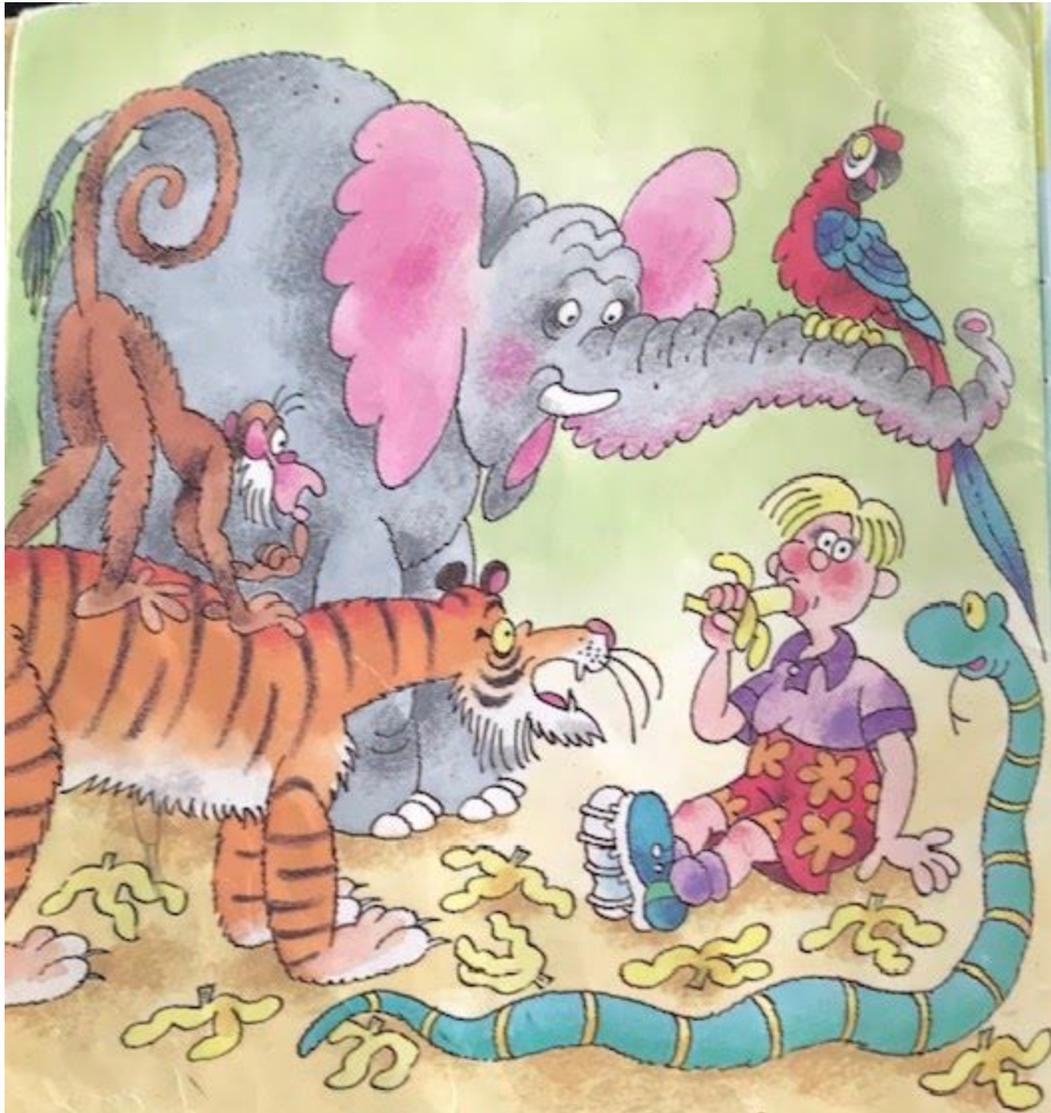

"Not me," said the tiger.

"Not me," said the parrot.

"Me!" said the boy.

Jenny Campbell

Reading Comprehension:

Answer the following questions:

Who did not eat the banana?

Who did eat the Banana?

Name a country where bananas are grown?

What is your favourite fruit? Why?

Jenny Campbell

Written Language:

Mango is my favourite fruit, but I just like to eat it whole with the juice running down my arm, while I am sitting under a tree on my grandparents farm.

I do like bananas. I like to eat them on my breakfast cereal. I think the best way to eat bananas is eating banana cake cooked by my grandmother.

Write a short story about your favourite fruit and the different ways you like to cook and/or eat it.

