EMOTIVE language

Emotive language is used to make the reader feel particular emotion, such as joy, sadness, happiness or concern.

Using the list of emotive words below, write the best suited one into the following statements.

| helpless | filthy | irresponsible | intense | abandoned |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| overcrowded | young | precious | innocent | tiny |

Think about the _____ marine life swimming in a _____ sea of plastic.

I believe _____ parents who allow _____ children to stay up regularly after 9pm should be fined.

Hundreds of _____ cats and dogs have been left in _____ animal shelters after Christmas.

Did you know _____ animals left in captivity have a lower life expectancy due to their _____ living conditions?

Children are being allowed to play in the _____ midday sun without a hat, damaging their _____ skin.

Create your own sentence using emotive language.
Highlight the emotive words.

_____

_____

_____