

Reading / Pānui

Get moving

Hikitia te Hā Tai Chi

Kids bop

BEFORE I READ;

Question 1.

Point to and read who the illustrator is?

Question 2.

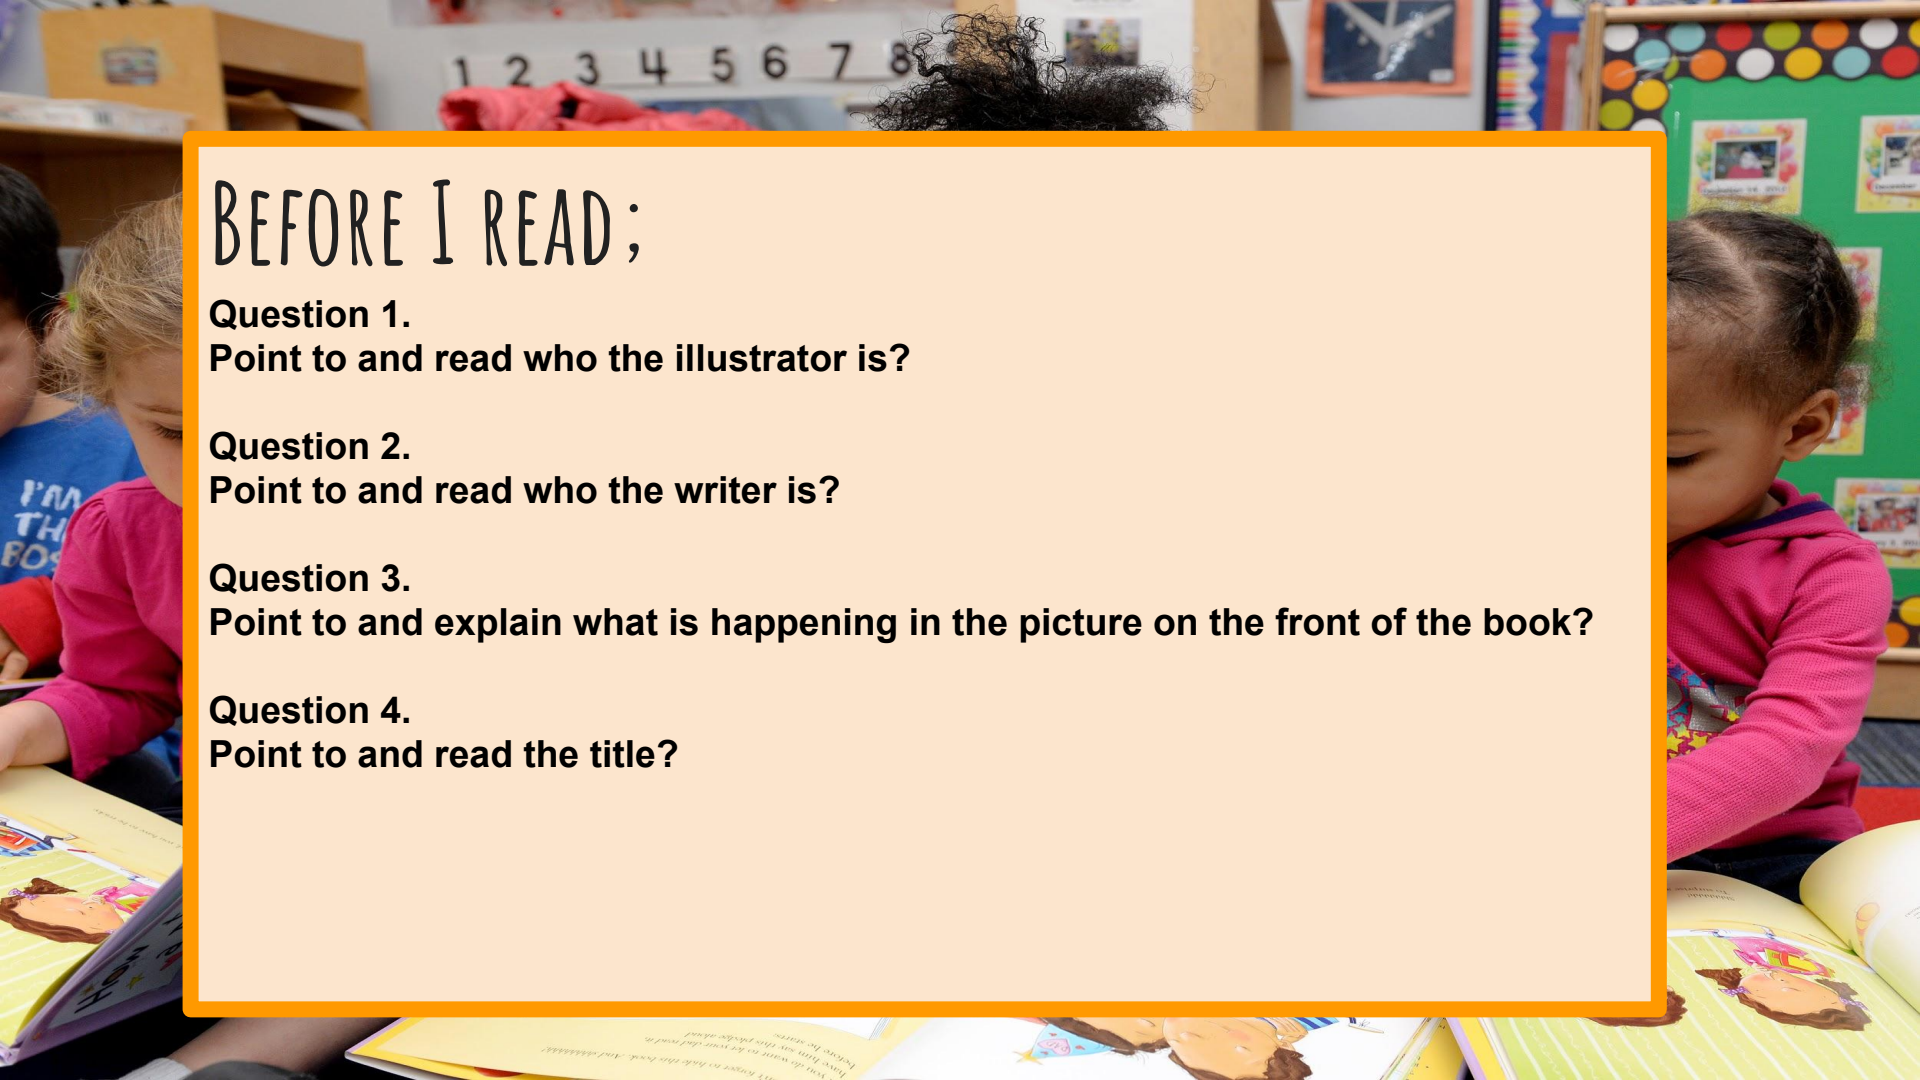

Point to and read who the writer is?

Question 3.

Point to and explain what is happening in the picture on the front of the book?

Question 4.

Point to and read the title?

HIGH FREQUENCY WORD PRACTICE;

1. Fill in the blanks?

Th_y

b_g

_n

f_ve

h_me

m__t

2. Read and spell each word 5 times?

They, big, an five, home, meet.

3. Put each of the high frequency words into a sentence?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

Reading - "Off went the light".

1. Read the story?
2. Answer the questions?
 - What happened in the story?

Answer

- Where is this happening? Eg. at home, at the beach??

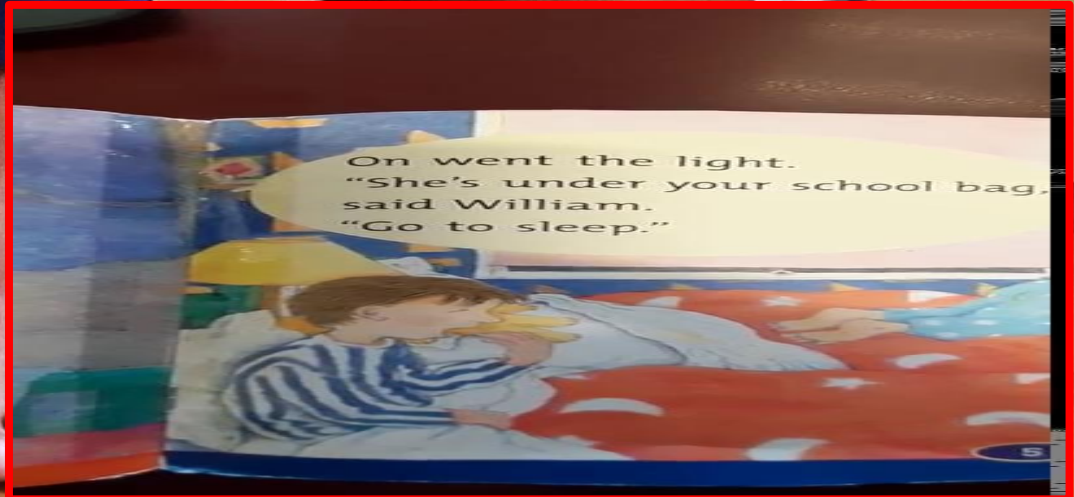

Answer

- Why?

Answer

3. Click on the link below to read the words?
Off went the lights words.

4. Click on the video below to hear the story?

SCANNING TO MAKE MEANING;

Q. Who are the characters in the story?

Answer.

Q. Where are they?

Answer.

Q. Who is talking?

Answer.

Q. What are they doing?

Answer.

Q. Why?

Answer.

AFTER I READ;

- 1. Summarise two events from the story and write a recount in your own words?
- 2. Write a recount about when you were lost?

Choose a letter and name some words from the story?

Choose some letters from the story and make a word wall?

FOLLOW UP ACTIVITY;

Reread the story to your family and ask them the questions in your reading tasks?

Draw a picture about a time when you were afraid?

- Where were you?
- Who were you with?
- What happened?

FEEDBACK;

The background of the slide features a fan of numerous light-colored, aged papers or documents fanned out from the center towards the top right. Below this, at the bottom of the frame, is the top edge of an open, thick, antique book with dark, worn leather covers and yellowed, aged pages.

What did you like about this story?

What didn't you like?

What was hard?

What was easy?

What can we change or add, to help you read better?