

RHETORICAL questions

Rhetorical questions can be used to persuade a reader. It is a question asked that does not require a response, but instead asked for the effect.

Match the rhetorical question to the topic by colouring the matching topic and the rhetorical question the same colour.

It is cruel to keep animals in cages	Haven't you always longed to go home when it's too hot to work?
Being famous would be the best thing in the world	Are you fed up with your younger sibling not helping with chores?
Parks are important for our community	Isn't it time we put a stop to animals living in cages?
It is important to have technology in the classroom	Haven't you thought how amazing it would be to be famous?
Children should help with the housework	Can't you see all the pollution cars on the roads are causing?
School should be cancelled if it is too hot	Have you ever thought how everyone would benefit from technology in the classroom?
More people should use public transport	How would you feel with no parks for your children to play in?
